

Certificate of research collaboration

With this certificate I, Prof. Enrico Rubaltelli, Associate Professor at the Department of Developmental Psychology and Socialization (DPSS), University of Padova, and Head of the JDM Lab (Judgment and Decision-Making Laboratory), confirm that is participating as an international collaborator to the Multicountry Mental Accounting Replication project led by the JDM Lab. The project aims to replicate the mental accounting effect on a global scale.

International collaborators contribute to the project by working on the translation and adaptation of the instrument and data collection.
